Office of Complaints & Discipline
Elizabethan Square
Georgetown

Eustace Joseph, Head of Complaints & Discipline,

On Monday, June 30th I turned in to your department a complaint to which I have received no response. I am re-faxing my 21 page missive accompanying this letter. Your predecessor Mark Clark told me not to file any more complaints, as Commissioner at the time Thursfield had instructed him to “ash-can any further complaints I might make.”

Considering that you purport to be the head of Complaints & Discipline, a one week lack of response is totally unacceptable. Since I have not heard that you have died, retired or left the island, I can only assume that you are avoiding me. These issues will not go away. I will start with talk-radio on Tuesday, and will air this on various internet venues. I anxiously await your response. You have my contact information, please use it! I am sending a copy of this by fax to Scott Swing of the Complaints Commissioner’s office.

Further to this issue, two young locals came within inches of murdering me, causing extreme bodily damage, and the only other witness has never been served to appear, despite records indicating he was! I have every reason to believe that they will be charged with simple assault, fined $50 each (which they will never pay) and be released, based upon previous results. If this matter is allowed to languish and these miscreants are set free, I will go VERY public in every medium I can access. Right and wrong are no longer negotiable.

Sincerely,

Name Withheld by Request!
